The physical body is a resonating matrix of information within the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns within the resonating matrix may become transformed from emotional or physical injury. These disturbances could result in ingrained perceptions or habits that can block an individual from obtaining a state of health, happiness, prosperity and other constructive circumstances. Matrix Energetics works to eliminate blockages, shift these embedded patterns and change core beliefs to be able to enable the person to attain their goals to be able create the kind of life and quality of life preferred.

Matrix Energetics practitioners believe that the limitations are the basis of an individual's concerns and that the healing system of Matrix Energetics could immediately eliminate these restrictions. This healing system is thought to remove the sources of both chronic and temporary issues like for instance scoliosis, fibromyalgia, emotional trauma, headaches and muscle spasms amongst others.

The system of Matrix Energetics is a stand alone healing practice even though various practitioners use it in order to enhance other healing methods. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner could transform the belief system of the customer and can change his or her beliefs about the healing process, the structure of reality and the nature of disease. Commonly, recipients could feel a wave pass throughout their bodies since their previous view of actuality is transformed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

At the quantum level, space and time are not part of realism. The consciousness of an individual, according to the quantum theory, can have an effect on how subatomic particles behave. As the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, that could be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta can appear everywhere simultaneously and likewise move backward or forward in time. An individual's consciousness could have an effect on these quanta to transform emotions and physical matter. These views and this particular information have been incorporated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are accountable for the changes that take place on the cellular level in the patient.
